The multicultural richness of California's musical history is showcased in these two unique books. Lovingly compiled by Calicanto Associates (four educators trained in the Kodaly system of teaching music to elementary school students), both Days of Gold! and They Came Singing present dozens of songs in simple arrangements that include harmonies, guitar chords, and additional lyrics. There are indigenous songs, sea shanties, work songs, spirituals, game songs, love songs, drinking songs, nineteenth-century popular tunes...
Think of Writing Home. 2:05. 9. The Days of '49. 3:15. 10. San Francisco Shanties and Sea Songs of California's Gold Rush with Tom Murphey. Dick and Carol Holdstock. Mormon Folk Songs.